

GRANITE COTTAGE IN SOUGHT AFTER LOCATION

Dating back to approximately 1660, this granite cottage is located on a charming cobbled high street in St. Aubin with charm and character.

St. Aubin is a highly desirable place to live being close to the many harbour side restaurants, shops, cafés, and grocery store. The pretty harbour is referred to as a 'Jewel in Jersey's Crown'.

Spread across three floors, the property comprises three reception rooms, a house bathroom, and a cloakroom and three double bedrooms.

The ground floor encompasses two reception rooms and a separate kitchen which features stylish slated flooring, with approved plans pending for an extension. The sitting room is enhanced by a log burner.

The cottage also benefits from plenty of storage.

Externally there is a tiered South facing decked garden with access from the kitchen and from one of the bedrooms. Great for entertaining in the summer months.

Conveniently, rented parking is available nearby and the property is in a good catchment area for schools out West.
