

LUXURY DETACHED RESIDENCE, ST. BRELADE

This detached and private property boasts picturesque country views. It is situated within an acre plot and accessible through electric gates. This stunning residence with approx. 4,800 sq. ft of accommodation is ideally positioned in close proximity to St Brelade's Bay, schools, and Jersey's finest beaches and restaurants.

This wonderful property has been refreshed, modified, and upgraded to include a new kitchen, decoration, outside landscaping, reconditioned swim spa and new composite decking.

Upon entering the property there is a feeling of light and spaciousness. The contemporary sitting room features a modern wood-burning stove, while the open-plan kitchen/dining room with pantry boasts a double-height ceiling and a striking east-facing gable window. The kitchen opens onto terraces and beautifully landscaped gardens with expansive country views. There is also a cloakroom for guests to use.

The property comprises 4 generously sized bedroom suites, each equipped with fitted wardrobes or dressing rooms. The impressive main bedroom suite includes two dressing rooms and two en-suite bathrooms. There is also a convenient utility room.

The first floor offers a media/cinema room, a bathroom, and a mezzanine room ideal for a study.

Externally, the expansive private garden is filled with mature plants and features ample entertaining terraces, leading to a lawned garden. Additional amenities include an extra-large swim spa, changing facilities, Oval Cape Breeze House, which has been modified for year-round use and can comfortably accommodate 8-10 people, a double garage with storage, and ample parking.

Planning permission has been granted to create a ground floor flat extension, install/construct a lift, remove external stairs from lower ground floor courtyard and create a double garage to east elevation (three-year consent from 19th Feb 2024).

Please note that the property is currently tenanted until September 2026 and is therefore available for purchase to investment buyers.
